President's Letter—Lynn McGlade

Spring has sprung! Our style show is sure to give you great ideas to perk up your wardrobe for all the special events that happen in Spring & Summer. Getting together with your friends & having a good time is always a must. It's so nice to make time to renew each other. So be sure to get your tickets from me or I can arrange to get them to you. We need everyone to lend a hand with small desserts, help with auction items, sell half & half tickets, greet our guests, welcome others—whatever you are comfortable with—we need you.

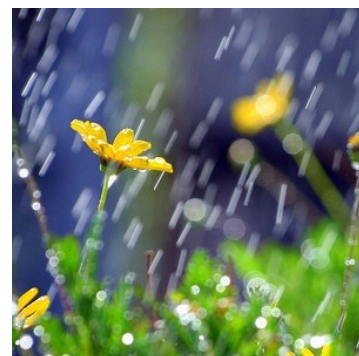

Our next meeting is April 6 at the Country Club. Ronelle Barnett will be presenting information on the S.T.A.R.S. Program.

At the trafficking seminar at the library, two Soroptimist members were present plus one brought her granddaughter. The information was good & timely. We all need to say something if we see something. We may be the only link in helping.

SIZ is getting an ACES award from the Chamber of Commerce on April 1st. Thanks to Linda White for submitting the information to the Chamber!

Remember all we do is echoed thru eternity.

Smile Zone

Dr. Sulens and I have been really busy treating our students in the mobile dental unit. Remember, in the fall, I stated we had many kindergarten students with rampant dental decay. We are finishing up on many of these students' treatments.

We have filled teeth, crowned teeth, extracted teeth, done root canal therapy, to help these students' teeth. They all have toothbrushes and seem to be trying to brush their teeth.

Thank goodness for this program or these students would never have had their teeth treated. Thanks to all of you!

Annual Spring Style Show and Silent Auction—All Hands on Deck!

Soroptimist of Zanesville members are making plans for one of the most fun and fabulous fundraisers of the year, which helps fund SIZ service projects – Transitions renovations, three Soroptimist financial Awards for area women and girls, Spirit of Women partnership events, Zanesville City Schools Dental Health Program, and awareness programs like the S.O.A.P. (Save Our Adolescents from Prostitution) distribution to help rescue human trafficking victims.

The Style Show & Silent Auction is scheduled for Saturday, April 16, 2016, so we need all hands on deck to help make this a success!

Here's how you can help!

- ◆ Sell tickets for $25.00 (a real bargain). Contact Lynn McGlade for tickets.

- ◆ Invite your friends, relatives, and cohorts to attend.
- ◆ Contact businesses to donate for the Silent Auction or Door Prize.
- ◆ Contact Allison Weeks at AWEEKS@thecommunitybank.com for a poster and a business letter with Soroptimist logo that explains how proceeds benefit the Zanesville community.
- ◆ Drop off Auction and Door prize donations at Linda's home no later than Tuesday, April 12th to be listed in the program.
- ◆ Bake or buy desserts (petite-sized servings) for the "delicious" dessert buffet.

Contact Lynn to sign up for a committee: Set up on April 15 and/or clean up after the event on April 16th.

Thanks for your help!

S.T.A.R.S.

Ronelle Barnett will be speaking to us about the S.T.A.R.S. camp. It is geared towards middle school girls and teaches sensitivity, tolerance, attitude, responsibility and self-esteem, S.T.A.R.S. for short.

"it's all about focusing on girl power, self esteem, thinking about who they want to be when they grow up. What they want to do. Where they want to go. Just encouraging all of that. Giving them the tools get through middle school and beyond," said Barnett in a WHIZ interview.

Soroptimist of Zanesville has supported this effort since it was under Cindy Brandi, a few years ago, and it is close to our hearts and mission to improve the lives of women.

Please plan to be at the April meeting to hear Ronelle.
