President's Letter—Lynn McGlade

We are working on our style show, which will be on April 29 at the First Christian Church, at the corner of Dresden & Military Roads.

Spring seems to be here now and I like it already! Help us celebrate spring with our style show. There are lots of things you can do - collect auction items, buy tickets, bring your friends, have fun with us. Tickets will be available at the March and April meetings.

April 21, 22, & 23 is the Spring Midwest Conference at the Kalarari resort in Sandusky. We need to have reservations in by March 21. If any one is interested, let us know. We love to have you go with us.

Our meeting is March 2, at Knights of Columbus.

Hope to see you all there.

- Lynn McGlade

SOROPTIMIST
Best for Women

Smile Zone

The students and I have been very busy in the classroom. We have been working on good dental health habits by brushing and flossing. We discuss the not so liked visits to the dentist that are so very important. Reviewing good nutrition, snack choices and drink options. The children are really into soft drinks and the power drinks. We discuss the sugars in these drinks and show pictures of mouths that have developed major dental issues as a result of drinking great quantities of these products. The best part of classroom education is the great response I receive when the new toothbrushes, floss and toothpaste come out. This still may be the only time some of our students receive a toothbrush! Happy Smiles!

Midwest Region Conference—April 21-23

Spring Conference will be held at Kalahari Resort in Sandusky, OH.

“Kalahari Resorts are inspired by an African philosophy that embraces the Spirit of Ubuntu, a belief that every person's humanity is tied to everyone else's, so that what you do affects the whole world. This philosophy is brought to life through Kalahari Resorts's hospitality and African-themed décor, featuring authentic art, furniture, and handicrafts from African artisans.” - source www.kalaharimeetings.com

We will continue to accept donations from Dimes for Dreams campaign at the March meeting. These funds will be brought to the conference.

Please let Lynn McGlade know if you'd like to attend the conference.

Meet Raleigh

Here is the face of Raleigh, the daughter of Charleen Bond. We helped Charleen have a nice Christmas and I have been to her new apartment with a TV for her that I didn't need any longer.

We talked at the Style Show meeting and think maybe we can collect some paper products for her at the March meeting. Please bring either toilet paper, paper towels, trash bags or possibly a gift card so she can buy some menstrual items.

I will try to find out what else she might need in the way of furniture. She had a kitchen table, but the chairs were not there yet and she has a love seat and a bed for her little one.

She doesn't have a bed for herself, but she has a mattress on the floor.
